

spring george

Springtime is magical in the South Carolina Lowcountry. With the final hints of winter finally behind us, Georgetown County is beginning to bloom. Spring is certainly one of the most celebrated seasons along our coast and for good reason. The beaches, marinas, downtown shops and restaurants are all open and ready for you. And if you're looking for a good reason to get away, what could be better than Easter weekend? Couples and families will discover an inviting community to spend this special holiday.
