

92nd Annual Dinner for Georgetown County Chamber of Commerce
July 23, 2009 • 6:00 pm • Pawleys Plantation Conference Center

The Georgetown County Chamber of Commerce is gearing up for their 92nd Annual Meeting on July 23, 2009, 6:00-8:00pm, at Pawleys Plantation.

This is the Chamber's premier event and space is always limited. Keeping in line with our education theme, this year's keynote speaker is Bernie Schein, author of, "If Holden Caulfield Were in My Classroom: Inspiring Love, Creativity, and Intelligence in Middle School Kids". In his book, Schein tells stories from his classroom to describe how he's able to help students dismantle their acquired defense mechanisms and discover their own unique creativity and intelligence. Schein is an accomplished educator and author and helped start and taught at for many years, the Paideia School, a private school in Atlanta. He was previously the principal at three different schools and has been an educational consultant throughout his career.

"If Holden Caulfield Were in My Classroom" is astonishing and original...does not tell you how to teach, but tells you how to live, how to feel deeply, how to enrich your time on earth. ...part philosophy, part self-help guide, a text of revelation, and an ode to the beauty of law and the wisdom of justice. Bernie Schein has been a life-changing force in my life. Now, with this book, he can be one in yours."* ~ Pat Conroy

Music will be provided by The Eclectic Company. The Chamber will also present its annual Small Business Person of the Year and Lifetime Achievement Awards and will be accepting nominations through June 15.
