COUNTY CHAMBER

The Georgetown County Chamber is proud to introduce George Goes Green, its first environmental education day for the Georgetown County community and the region. The purpose of this event is to bring residents together with local business and non-profit to share knowledge, ideas and products that will assist us to live a less wasteful life and contribute to a more sustainable world. We have the help of a wonderful list of environmental partners for this event. What we all hope the result will be is an introduction to the myriad of ways that we can work to protect our local assets as well as those of our world. Don't miss this opportunity to promote your environmentally friendly business to the community. For a reasonable sponsorship fee, you'll make help to make a difference in providing an educational event that is vital to our community. Your sponsorship fee will insure that your business is promoted before, during and after this community-wide event.

George Goes Green will be promoted via news releases, emails and faxes to members and media, as well as posters and advertisement in key locations throughout the County and the region.

Hundreds of people are expected to attend this exciting new event.
Save your sponsorship spot today and make sure your business is known for its support of this environmental awareness day.
